President E. B. Fred
University of Wisconsin
Madison 6, Wisconsin

Dear President Fred:

Thank you very much for your letter of August 30, 1951, regarding the participation of [redacted] in the conference to be held at the University on World Land Tenure Problems. I have noted the extent of your plans and believe that they will result in an effective and valuable meeting.

STAT

I deeply regret that due to the pressure of [redacted] [redacted] duties here for the next few months, it will not be possible for him to attend this conference. Unfortunately, we do not have an available substitute at this time.

STAT

However, I have been advised that [redacted] Consultant to Food Research, Stanford University, and author of the book "Socialist Agriculture of the USSR", is well-qualified to discuss land policies of the Communist countries and related economic issues. In the event you may desire to contact [redacted] his address is [redacted]
